

World Book Day

Challenge 1: Think carefully about the book character you are going to dress up as tomorrow.

Write a description of your character – think about their appearance, their personality and the things they are known for or people/things that are important to them.

There are some ideas that might help you on the link below

Challenge 2: Can you plan a new story for your character? Think carefully about the elements of a story.

- Opening
- Build up
- Problem/Main event
- Resolution/What happens after the main event
- Ending

Use the boxing up template to plan your story.
