

Music

This year we have enjoyed a range of musical activities.

The children have had opportunities to listen to live music, sing as part of group and to perform to a real audience.

Our school choir have been sounding fantastic and have been brilliant ambassadors for our school.

